1. Name : Client X

Date of Birth : 4/xx/xxxx

Born on 4th Day of the Month

Personality or Character.

Positive Traits: organized, perceptive, disciplined, balanced, justified

Negative Traits: obsessive, compulsive, tyrannical, demanding, incommunicative

1.1

Having been born on 4th day of the month:

You are a well organized, reserved, conservative and analytical kind of person. You obeyed and practice disciplined and is a hard working person. You love home and built roots to families and the country. You can succeed in any profession requiring methodical and constructive skills. You must guard against being stubborn, overwork and being overly set and cold toward others. You must learn to accept change and have fun more often to release your seriousness in your life.

A birthday on the fourth day of the month indicates a four-square individual, a lover of nature, home, family and country. You are most likely to be successful in manufacturing, building, utilities, and textiles - any occupation connected with the products of the earth. Music, painting or sculpting offer relaxing sidelines, although you could commercialize any of these as well. You're rather set in your ideas and tend to impose them on others, seeing yourself as the final arbiter of good manners and correct ethics. Your belief in discipline makes it hard for you to express your feelings, and as a result you suffer a great deal emotionally. When it comes to work, you drive yourself tirelessly -- and, unfortunately, everyone else, too. You have a decided tendency to overwork and if need be should schedule your time for recreation.

Since your birthday falls on the fourth day of the month, you are loving, loyal, dependable and organized. As a lover of law, order and regulation, you are the original flag waver. Life for you is built upon strong foundations; you are not afraid to work long and hard hours for what you believe, always laboring from the bottom up. You are devoted to home and family and responsibility. You are often labeled the "slow thinker" but will take lead in handling out sound and practical advice. Your literary epics can be found on the "how to" shelves of most libraries and bookstores. You value security and money for their formula for achieving your goals. You often sleep with your wallet besides you which is certainly not something out of the ordinary. You will always win in the Tug of War contest. On the bleak side (not encouraging side), you may box yourself in through your own stubbornness.

Your creativity as a number 6 is usually at the zenith when you are providing products and comforts for the home or personal adornment. You may say that you know ten people born with this life path besides yourself and that nobody is a teacher by profession. You can take another look around and you will see. that line forming around the block? They are people who line up early to seek your advice on everything from garbage to gambling. As a number 6, you must be aware of your soft side: being overly sensitive to criticism. You prefer giving it to receiving it. This sensitivity, added to your need to be perfect, can let you be knocked out of balance by an unkind word or your own inability to adjust to circumstances. Even a casual observer doesn't have to be a rocket scientist to know that you can be the cause of your own doing. Your negative side can lead to romantic problems, divorce, and downright miser. You may prefer to be married, but you may also be unaware that a necessary ingredient of domestic harmony is the ability to adjust to whatever comes your way. It won't hurt you to soften some of your stronger opinions, either.

year for many individuals, especially if they are unable to embrace change. You may feel restless and things that used to interest you may be replaced by new desires. YOUR CHALLENGES IN LIFE number describes your final phase of life as well as influences the course of your entire life as a primary difficulty or challenge that you will always have to face.

The Main Life Challenge

5.1

Your main life challenges ...

Your main Life Challenge Number is 3

This represents a period in your life when you might find it hard to focus either because of emotional or psychological disturbances or because of boredom. Your attentions may be scattered and you might also suffer from shyness. You may have a great imagination or talent but have difficulty expressing it. In childhood this can result in frustration and introversion. In your adult years you may come off as too arrogant or eccentric to be taken seriously by anyone.

What you should do at certain age of your life.

1st Year Cycle (At age 10,19, 28, 37, 46, 55, 64, 73, 82, 90)

This is a decision making year. Be receptive to new ideas. Decide for yourself. Do something different. Be original. Surprise your friends. Start “the ball rolling “to bring your personal ambition into expression. Make most of your social contacts. But...keep your plans to yourself. Tell no one until they are carefully grown and completed. New ideas are very ‘sensitive’ to cold droughts or critical opinions or well meant suggestions from friends, family or associates. They have to be reared carefully by ones own hand. Be ready to let go of the old to make room for the new. Listen to your intuition, act upon it. Put your best foot forward with a fearless spirit and the next twelve months should open new doors of opportunity and growth for you.

2nd Year Cycle (At age 11,20,29,38,47,56,65,74,83)

This is a year to make most of your social contacts. Enjoy life. New friends among the opposite sex may bring added thrill or adventure. Make an effort to contact important people. Put your best foot forward, let your light shine. Favorable year for selling well organized, entertaining or artistic, creative effort. A new interest in children, or expressing your talent in some new way should make for the variety and growth. Travel if you can make each day more colorful than the last.

This is a year to put health and affairs in perfect order. Give yourself a once over from physical standpoint – or have your health adviser do so. Bring greater regularity into your program; allow a definite time for relaxation in the outdoors. This year should mark your real start toward the development of previous hopes and plans. Combine social activities with a definite purpose; save yourself from the friction of inharmonious associations. Study the theatre; occupy the stage in your world. Become an authority on something; even be it only your pet hobby.

4th Year Cycle (At age 4,13,22,31,40,49,58,67,76,85)

This year is favorable for a change of location or improvement in your daily schedule. Take a trip if you can; investigate new field or figure out how to handle your present one in a new way. Consider the opposite sex in your plan; they may be able to help you.

- If you are 21, you are in your 22nd year. Finish to perfection your education or present duties. Do not tie yourself up with matrimonial contracts or gold-brick schemes. After you are 24 you will be a better judge, not only of personalities, but a proposition. Next year you should take the longest trip possible.
- * If you are 22, it is important to broaden your view. Take the longest trip you can on water if possible. Put forth your best effort, diplomatically, to meet important people or those of large affairs. Polish your talents until they shine.

5th Year Cycle (At age 5,14,23,32,41,50,59,68,77,86)

This year should give you an inspirational new beginning by reason of change of residence or trip away from home. Add to your knowledge in some way. Bring intuition and act upon it. Bring variety into your program. Investigate and be clever in your association with the opposite sex. Meet their whys with your wherefores. Find his or her center of interest, - stimulate that if you wish a favorable response to your own suggestion.

6th Year Cycle (At age 6,15,24,33,42,51,60,69,78,87)

Favorable year for the establishment of a home or a more definite professional or business background. Keep busy, master all details, make your duties shine with the polish of perfection. Figure out someway to save time or do the same thing with less effort. Built your ideas into definite form – this is a year to lay the corner stone and complete the foundation of your real air castle.

7th Year Cycle (At age 7,16,25,34,43,52,61,70,79,88)

This year indicates a finishing or completion of certain business affairs affecting the home or profession. Your success lies in being a diplomat, knowing when to speak and hen to keep silence. Uncover the motive of the other person before you express your views. If called upon to speak before any group or organizations, by all means do so. Be the gracious host to professional associates. Responsibilities efficiently carried through should bring excellent returns to you next year.

8th Year Cycle (At age 8,17,26,35,44,53,62,71,80,89)

This year should bring a larger financial return; dependent upon the well organized and completed effort of the seven preceding years. Turn over any lesser details to others and work out a larger and more ambitious program. Favorable year for buying, investment, business contracts. Associate with those groups or organizations which can boost you along in the direction you desire to go. Be a master diplomat, yet exercise a fighting spirit if need be in other that justice, equity and the proper compensation may prevail, on all occasions.

9th Year Cycle (At age 9,18,27,36,45,54,63,72,81,90)

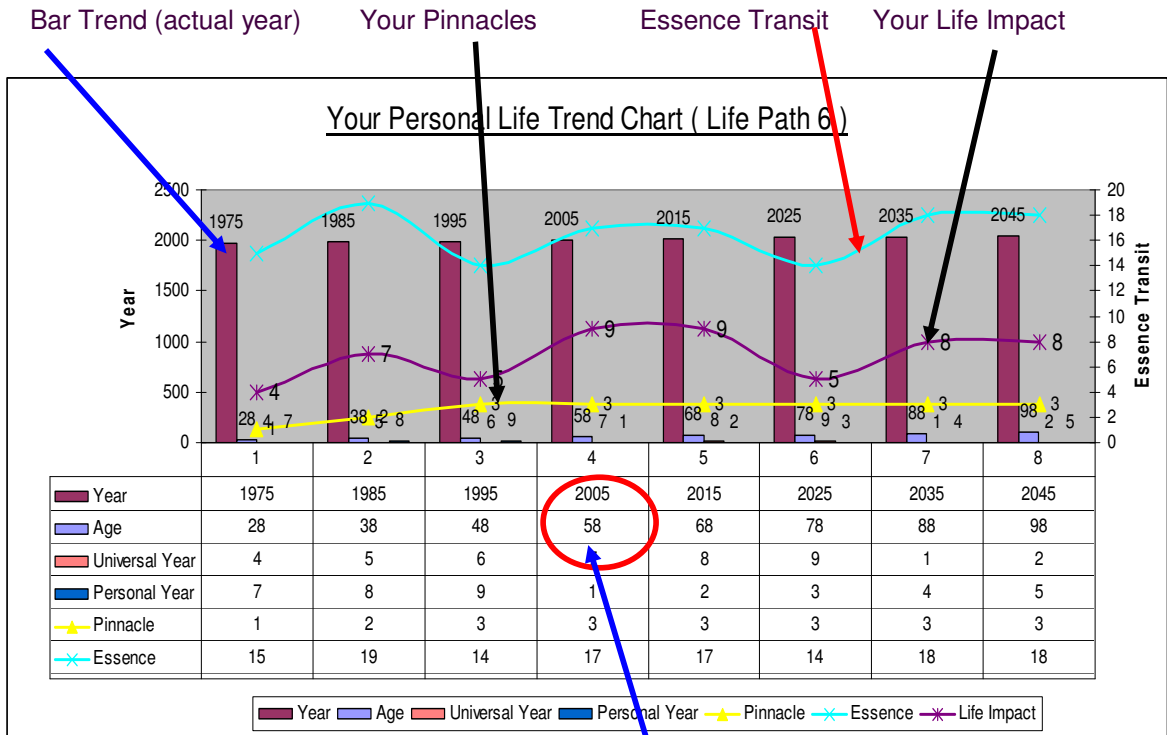

This year marks the ending of a cycle, when you must be willing to let go of old associations or attachments, If need be in order that you may be free to move into a new environment or fresh activity next year. If you refuse to move on at this time – and literally, you should take a trip if you possibly can – you are apt to be swept into the reverse current and have to repeat a similar round of experiences again. Have the nerve to take a chance with a new idea if you would benefit by the new door of opportunity which awaits you the coming year. If possible to travel – at least go in your imagination – love yourself. Duty begins with yourself this year, - if you would blossom and bloom for the next nine years. Make your decisions when alone – keep them well guarded, - and you may surprise your friends in the near future.

Explanation of your experience encounter as follow:

6.2.1

Your transit essence for year 2005 and 2006

Your essence number is 17

For these two years the transit is probably one of the finest of all essences from a business standpoint, but the demands are high. Finances must be attended to constantly, with an eye to paying the bills and balancing the budget. Abundant financial rewards usually accompany the ownership and operation of property that must be attended to.

6.2.2

Your transit essence for year 2007 and 2010

Your essence number is 18

This essence number will influence your life as effect from your birth-date for the stated years. It will develop the kind of activities and events you may encounter during its transit.

Year 2007-2010 is a dramatic Transit, which must be lived on a highly compassionate and broadly universal level. Great strides can be made along the lines of your business or professional life, in acting, music and religion, but a broader outlook must be cultivated. While some kind of progress can be expected, it can also be a time fraught with delay, sorrow, and emotional loss. People no longer necessary to your development will go out of your life, either through death or by moving off in their own directions. It is best to simply view these situations as part of life. If they are considered a real loss, emotional problems could result. While experiencing this Transit, you should not try to hold onto things or people that resist it; it is best just to let go and to move on with your life. You should live on a higher plane, try to assist others, and avoid being self-seeking or selfish in any way. The year brings a greater tendency to argue; disagreements can be frequent, resulting in unhappiness, sorrow, separation, and divorce. Romantic relationships, if self-seeking can be short-lived and negative in nature. Marriages begun in this Transit can be painful and disappointing, resulting in divorce, separation, and emotional loss. Love affairs that are clingy, demanding, or that expect too much from others can cause problems. For this reason, love and romance, if entered into during this Transit and not based on high ideals and a true sense of sharing, are often becoming a disappointment. Others may try to take advantage of what is not rightfully theirs, resulting in legal disappointments. But the chance for financial gain will be available, along with varied and favorable opportunities. Big business can be interesting and abundant this year, bringing the opportunity to advance your reputation and acumen. You will find an unlimited capacity for greatness if you seek to take care of the needs of mankind. Money is often made, retained, lost, only to be regained. Legal involvement, becomes pronounced when honesty is not maintained in business.

Year 2007-2010 also incorporates all the characteristics as mentioned earlier, with the added element of activity with larger corporations and institutions. The year will bring the possibility of a position of authority and power in you. Greater financial increase can bring even higher recognition, public exposure, and authority, but it sometimes follows a legal struggle because of the dishonest actions of others. During these years of transit, you can advance in reputation and career, achieving a sought-after level of personal satisfaction, but the basic, often heavy-hearted emotions and drama of the earlier mentioned transit will remain and have to be handled, possibly contributing a feeling of loss and emotional strain.

Your transit essence for year 2011

Your essence number is 14

Your life is under the 14 Essence for this year. During this Transit, you will be able to overcome difficulties by striving to make harmonious agreements with others. There will be a tendency towards misunderstandings and unnecessary competition, both on the job and at home, but these drawbacks can be alleviated if you keep your demands to a minimum and try to compromised as much as possible. This year may bring more emotional upsets and disagreements than the straight senses. Keep an eye on your financial situation. Finance may fluctuate, but do not attempt to offset a downward trend by unwise and frequent speculation, overspending, and gambling. Moreover, take care of your health. This year, being a karmic transit, will bring activity that invites the tendency to misuse one's freedom by overindulging in food, drugs, alcohol, sex and gambling.

Your transit essence for year 2012

Your essence number is 18

Once again for year 2012, you will encounter the similar essence for the previous year which you had experienced in year 2007-2010.
